Beyond Squarefeet Mall Management, currently managing malls in India and Nigeria, has appointed Siddharth Sahgal as the MD. He recently joined the company as chief managing officer.

New Beyond Squarefeet Mall Management managing director, Siddharth Sahgal.

He brings in over two decades experience in retail and mall management. As part of his previous assignments he has been associated with setup and management of Mumbai Airport, R City Mall (Mumbai), Kumar Pacific (Pune), Pacific Mall (Rajouri, Delhi & Dehradun), Koregaon Plaza Centre (Pune), Bangalore Central, Pantaloons, The Loft etc. He brings in the exposure and expertise of both retail operations & mall management apart from strategy, research & analysis, operations, innovation, wealth creation and business development.

Sahgal says, "With a great team and dedicated focus, I look forward to building sustainable and profitable mall assets, which offer great returns to investors, owners, retail brand partners while creating successful community centres. We are proud to take our talent and our success across international borders, making India proud. Our processes, systems and marketing efforts have made remarkable progress in the malls managed by us, which is clearly appreciated and visible to our clients, consumers and our retail partners."

As the first Indian mall management company to go international, it is also exploring and is in discussions with various mall developers in Iran, Kenya and Azerbaijan for managing malls.
